Triton Proxy Voting Rights Statement

Currently, no general partner of any Triton investment fund has delegated voting rights attached to instruments held in the investment fund's portfolio. Each such general partner exercises such voting rights:

- (i) in accordance with the investment objectives and policies of the relevant Triton investment fund, and
- (ii) in a manner that prevents and/or manages any conflicts of interest that may arise from the exercise of such voting rights and in accordance with any applicable conflicts of interest policy.
